

OUR STORY

We have all been touched by cancer in one way or another, whether we have had it ourselves, or it has afflicted our family members or friends.

Mareta Childs, Founder and Executive Director of Loving Hands of Healing Hope was diagnosed with breast cancer in 2011. After spending the following 14 months undergoing chemotherapy and numerous other surgeries and treatments, she was cancer-free. During her treatment she was blessed with the opportunity to receive integrative therapy and services from amazing practitioners in the Tucson area. The gifts of touch and care she received through these supplemental services helped reduce stress and create harmony, peace and balance in her body and mind while she was surviving cancer. Recognizing that many patients could not afford these helpful treatments, it was during her struggle to heal that she decided to start Loving Hands of Healing Hope.

Our mission is to help more patients receive comforting integrative therapies and to help them through their time of treatment and recovery.

WHAT WE DO

Loving Hands of Healing Hope is a non-profit foundation that raises funds to provide integrative healing, spa, and cosmetic services to women and men undergoing treatment for cancer. Our mission is to assist patients who would not otherwise be able to afford these services - services that help them achieve balance, relaxation and added self-esteem while they go through the difficult side-effects of chemotherapy and other invasive treatments.

- ◆ All of our service providers are fully licensed practitioners of their services.
- ◆ When available and applicable, our providers have special certification in treating and working with oncology patients.
- ◆ We use and share knowledge about skin care products designed specifically for sensitive skin and bodies that are being treated with chemotherapy drugs.
- ◆ Products are dermatologist tested, paraben free, sulfate free, chirally correct, and have limited scent and no artificial fragrance.

SERVICES PROVIDED

Healing Touch Facials - Skin care treatments for the cancer patient include special attention to address skin compromised by chemotherapy and radiation. Carefully selected products are used to strengthen, soften and repair fragile skin.

Massage Therapy - Therapeutic massage aids the body in the healing process by improving circulation, soothing the mind, and promoting relaxation.

Manicures and Pedicures - Beauty and grooming treatments for the hands and feet use special products for sensitive skin and nails.

Hands, Feet and Scalp Treatments - Relaxing treatments include exfoliation and massage. Treatments encourage good circulation, reduce stress, and improve hydration.

Haircuts and Styling - A variety of haircut and color services are provided for the patient's special needs.

HOW TO GET HELP

2 EASY STEPS:

Loving Hands of Healing Hope works directly with the doctors, nurses and caregivers of hospitals, oncology centers and other treatment facilities.

1. Using our Physician's Authorization form (available on our website), patients request a signed authorization for the service of their choice from their medical provider.
2. Once referred, patients call Loving Hands of Healing Hope directly to schedule their complimentary service.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

Our foundation is funded entirely through the generous financial support of our donors. Funds are used to provide services to patients undergoing cancer treatment and to support fundraising activities. You can do your part to help bring comfort and healing services to patients in treatment for cancer. For more information and to make a donation please visit our website: www.lhohh.org or mail a check to Loving Hands of Healing Hope at the address on the back of this brochure.
